Fly Safely with Tahseen's COVID-CONTROLLED Charters

Despite the ever-changing restrictions brought about by the COVID19 pandemic, we remain true to our mission of finding the best solutions in the market so that we can continuously provide tailored solutions to our clients, especially for government agencies, NGOs, pharmaceutical and oil and gas companies.

We will partner with you in assessing and defining what is really needed in your particular situation and make sure you arrive where you need to be with the best choice of private air charter.

We will make sure that it's going to be a peaceful and memorable experience starting from the terminal, going to the aircraft and in its cabin, up until the air, until the end of the flight.

What Our Clients Say

"We have had a long and lasting harmonious working relationship with TAHSEEN AVIATION since 2010. Since it's inception, they have provided us with tremendous excellent services to our businesses in terms of cooperation, chartering and ground handling. They are deeply solid and reliable besides being experts in their field and offer the most competitive rates in the market."

- Roman T. , Aircraft Operator

TAHSEEN AVIATION is a long-standing supplier and a loyal client, where we assist them with their charter flights and offer them services in our locations. We have worked together since 2013, and they have always provided clear and professional services to all our clients/operators who come from all over the globe, which makes them one of our preferred suppliers.

- Essa Z., Flight Support

We would like to express our appreciation for the professional and timely services of TAHSEEN AVIATION. They have been providing us with Aviation Chartering, Permits and Consulting Solutions since 2015. We have always been able to count on their friendly and professional team, even for our requirements of cargo or passenger aircraft in challenged conditions and war risk zones.
